

I partially agree with this proposal. The thirty day waiting period between retakes is appropriate, but the VEs should be given the discretion to allow for a retest if, in their judgment, it would be justified.

I disagree with making the 5 WPM a requirement for the Extra class only. Those who wish to have the HF privileges at the General class level should have to pass the CW test